

NEARBY ATTRACTIONS

Maithon Dam

The Maithon Dam is located about 48 km from the City of Dhanbad. It is a beautiful and resourceful place with adventurous activities such as water sports, hill climbing, island resort etc. The dam is built on the Barakar River.

For more details:

<https://dhanbad.nic.in/tourist-place/maithon-dam/>

Bhatinda Fall

The Bhatinda Falls is a powerful and picturesque waterfall that cascades over pronounced rock formations. It is located at a distance of 14 km from Dhanbad.

For more details:

<https://dhanbad.nic.in/tourist-place/bhatinda-fall/>

Shikharji - Parasnath Hills

Sikharji- Parasnath Hills is a pilgrimage site located around 60 km from Dhanbad City. It is the highest mountain in the state of Jharkhand and is the most important Jain Tirtha (pilgrimage site). The place is believed to be where twenty of the twenty-four Jain Tirthankaras, along with many other monks, attained Moksha. There are rest houses available at the peak of Shikharji.

For more details:

<https://giridih.nic.in/tourist-place/parasnath/>

Topchanchi Lake

Topchanchi Lake is an artificial lake covering an expanse of over 214 acres. The lake is at a distance of 37 km from the Dhanbad. Nature lovers enjoy this part of town and are often found flocking the area in search of rare flora and fauna. A wildlife sanctuary is also located in the heart of town.

For more details:

<https://dhanbad.nic.in/tourist-place/topchanchi-lake/>

Panchet Dam

The Panchet Dam is located about 52 km from the city of Dhanbad. The dam gets its name for the nearby Panchet Hill that rises above the dam. It is a favourite tourist spot and easily accessible for day trips from Dhanbad. The dam is built on the river Damodar.

For more details:

<https://dhanbad.nic.in/tourist-place/panchet-dam/>

Ajodhya Hills

It is located about 100 km from Dhanbad and in the state of West Bengal State. It is a popular place for mountaineers interested in rock climbing. There are two forest rest houses available. According to Hindu mythology, Rama & Sita had come to Ajodhya Hills and stayed during their exile.

For more details:

<http://purulia.gov.in/tourism/sitakund.html>

Hazaribagh Wildlife Sanctuary

The wildlife sanctuary is located around 140 km from Dhanbad.

For more details:

<https://hazaribag.nic.in/tourist-place/hazaribag-wildlife-sanctuary/>

Trikut Hill and Tapovan Caves

Trikut Hill is located about 120 km from Dhanbad. The hills are a famous spot. The three peaks of the TRIKUT hill signify the holy trinity of Brahma, Vishnu and Mahesh. A ropeway is a tourist attraction and can be used to reach the top of the hill. Tapovan Caves is located nearby from these hills.

For more details:

<https://deoghar.nic.in/tourist-place/trikutpahar/>

